A BILL FOR

1 AN ACT concerning State government.

2 Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois,
3 represented in the General Assembly:

4 Section 5. The General Assembly Operations Act is amended
5 by changing Section 10 as follows:

6 (25 ILCS 10/10)

7 Sec. 10. General Assembly printing; session laws.

8 (a) Authority. Public printing for the use of either House
9 of the General Assembly shall be subject to its control.

10 (b) Time of delivery. Daily calendars, journals, and other 11 similar printing for which manuscript or copy is delivered to 12 the Legislative Printing Unit by the clerical officer of either 13 House shall be printed so as to permit delivery at any 14 reasonable time required by the clerical officer. Any petition, 15 bill, resolution, joint resolution, memorial, and similar 16 manuscript or copy delivered to the Legislative Printing Unit 17 by the clerical officer of either House shall be printed at any 18 reasonable time required by that officer.

19 (c) Style. The manner, form, style, size, and arrangement
20 of type used in printing the bills, resolutions, amendments, 21 conference reports, and journals, including daily journals, of 22 the General Assembly shall be as provided in the Rules of the 23 General Assembly.

1           (d) Daily journal. The Clerk of the House of 2 Representatives and the Secretary of the Senate shall each
3 prepare and deliver to the Legislative Printing Unit,
4 immediately after the close of each daily session, a printer's
5 copy of the daily journal for their respective House.

6           (e) Daily and bound journals.

7           (1) Subscriptions. The Legislative Printing Unit shall 8 have printed the number of copies of the daily journal as 9 may be requested by the clerical officer of each House. The 10 Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of 11 Representatives shall furnish a copy of each daily journal
12 of their respective House to those persons who apply
13 therefor upon payment of a reasonable subscription fee
14 established separately by the Secretary of the Senate and 15 the Clerk of the House for their respective House. Each 16 subscriber shall specify at the time he or she subscribes 17 the address where he or she wishes the journals mailed. The 18 daily journals shall be furnished free of charge on a 19 pickup basis to State offices and to the public as long as 20 the supply lasts. The Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk
21 of the House shall determine the number of journals
22 available for pickup at their respective offices.

23           (2) Other copies. After the General Assembly adjourns,
24 the Clerk of the House and the Secretary of the Senate
25 shall prepare and deliver to the Legislative Printing Unit
26 a printer's copy of matter for the regular House and Senate

1 journals, together with any matter, not previously printed 2 in the daily journals, that is required by law, by order of 3 either House, or by joint resolution to be printed in the 4 journals. The Legislative Printing Unit shall have printed 5 the number of copies of the bound journal as may be 6 requested by the clerical officer of each House. A
7 reasonable number of bound volumes of the journal of each
8 House of the General Assembly shall be provided to State
9 and local officers, boards, commissions, institutions,
10 departments, agencies, and libraries requesting them
11 through canvasses conducted separately by the Secretary of 12 the Senate and the Clerk of the House. Reasonable fees
13 established separately by the Secretary of the Senate and 14 the Clerk of the House may be charged for bound volumes of 15 the journal of each House of the General Assembly.

16 (f) Session laws. Immediately after the General Assembly
17 adjourns, the Secretary of State shall prepare a printer's copy
18 for the "Session Laws of Illinois" that shall set forth in full 19 all Acts and joint resolutions passed by the General Assembly 20 at the session just concluded and all executive orders of the 21 Governor taking effect under Article V, Section 11 of the 22 Constitution and the Executive Reorganization Implementation 23 Act. The printer's copy shall be furnished and delivered to the 24 Secretary of State by the Enrolling and Engrossing Department 25 of the 2 Houses, in such format as the Secretary of State and 26 the Enrolling and Engrossing Departments may agree. At the time

1 an enrolled law is filed with the Secretary of State, whether 2 before or after the conclusion of the session in which it was 3 passed, it shall be assigned a Public Act number, the first
4 part of which shall be the number of the General Assembly
5 followed by a dash and then a number showing the order in which 6 that law was filed with the Secretary of State. The title page 7 of each volume of the session laws shall contain the following:
8 "Printed by the authority of the General Assembly of the State 9 of Illinois". The laws shall be arranged by the Secretary of 10 State and printed in the chronological order of Public Act 11 numbers. At the end of each Act the dates when the Act was 12 passed by the General Assembly and when the Act was approved by 13 the Governor shall be stated. Any Act becoming law without the 14 approval of the Governor shall be marked at its end in the 15 session laws by the printed certificate of the Secretary of 16 State. Executive orders taking effect under Article V, Section
17 11 of the Constitution and the Executive Reorganization 18 Implementation Act shall be printed in chronological order of 19 executive order number and shall state at the end of each
20 executive order the date it was transmitted to the General 21 Assembly and the date it takes effect. In the case of an 22 amendatory Act, the changes made by the amendatory Act shall be 23 indicated in the session laws in the following manner: (i) all 24 new matter shall be underscored; and (ii) all matter deleted by 25 the amendatory Act shall be shown crossed with a line. The 26 Secretary of State shall prepare and furnish a table of 1 contents and an index to each volume of the session laws.

2 (g) Distribution. The bound volumes of the session laws of 3 the General Assembly or, upon agreement, an electronic copy of 4 the bound volumes, shall be made available to the following:

5 (1) one copy of each to each State officer, board,
6 commission, institution, and department requesting a copy 7 in accordance with a canvass conducted by the Secretary of 8 State before the printing of the session laws except judges 9 of the appellate courts and judges and associate judges of 10 the circuit courts;

11 (2) 10 copies to the law library of the Supreme Court;
12 one copy each to the law libraries of the appellate courts; 13 and one copy to each of the county law libraries or, in 14 those counties without county law libraries, one copy to 15 the clerk of the circuit court;

16 (3) one copy of each to each county clerk;

17 (4) 10 copies of each to the library of the University
18 of Illinois;

19 (5) 3 copies of each to the libraries of the University 20 of Illinois at Chicago, Southern Illinois University at 21 Carbondale, Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville,
22 Northern Illinois University, Western Illinois University,
23 Eastern Illinois University, Illinois State University,
24 Chicago State University, Northeastern Illinois
25 University, Chicago Kent College of Law, DePaul
26 University, John Marshall Law School, Loyola University,

1 Northwestern University, Roosevelt University, and the 2 University of Chicago;

3 (6) a number of copies sufficient for exchange purposes
4 to the Legislative Reference Bureau and the University of 5 Illinois College of Law Library;

6 (7) a number of copies sufficient for public libraries
7 in the State to the State Library; and 8 (8) the remainder shall be retained for distribution as 9 the interests of the State may require to persons making 10 application in writing or in person for the publication.

11 (h) Messages and reports. The following shall be printed in 12 a quantity not to exceed the maximum stated in this subsection
13 and bound and distributed at public expense:

14 (1) messages to the General Assembly by the Governor,
15 10,000 copies;

16 (2) the biennial report of the Lieutenant Governor,
17 1,000 copies;

18 (3) the biennial report of the Secretary of State,
19 3,000 copies;

20 (4) the biennial report of the State Comptroller, 5,000
21 copies;

22 (5) the biennial report of the State Treasurer, 3,000
23 copies;

24 (6) the annual report of the State Board of Education, 25 6,000 copies; and

26 (7) the biennial report and annual opinions of the 1 Attorney General, 5,000 copies.

2 The reports of all other State officers, boards,
3 commissions, institutions, and departments shall be printed,
4 bound, and distributed at public expense in a number of copies
5 determined from previous experience not to exceed the probable
6 and reasonable demands of the State therefor. Any other report
7 required by law to be made to the Governor shall, upon his or 8 her order, be printed in the quantity ordered by the Governor, 9 bound and distributed at public expense.
